FRESHMAN

The freshman class were an exciting group of kids. After being on top in middle school they got bumped to the bottom of the ranks in high school. The penalty of being a freshman.

They were found participating in many activities during the year. In almost every activity and sport you would find a freshman participating.

The only responsibility they had to take care of was voting for class officers, which was done in September.

Class Officers. Back: Meghan Hammond Treasurer; Erin Hammond Vice President; Front: Lauren Redman Student Council Representative; Candice Swedenburg President; Kelli Stevens Secretary.

Kayla Beck and Heidi Hanquist enjoy the snow, well what we had.

Don't look to happy Calvin Rahrs.

Kelli Stevens relaxes after a softball game.

Meghan Hammond having fun in keyboarding.

Ashley Strobel, Erin Hammond, Haley Stromburg, (above) and Heather Klingsporn (below) have enough spirit to go around.

Candice Swedenberg and Josh Hohnholt get together in the hallway.

Brandon Bankson and Josh Gustafson studying hard or hardly studying.

"Dani Sneed, aren't you suppose to be in class?"

"Hi, I'm John Lindgren."

"Nice hair Tandie Rising."

The one and only Amber Swanson.

Now that's a smile, Chris Ziemba and Josh Hudson.

Sophomores

This year's sophomores were a fun bunch of kids. Since this was not a very busy year for them, they spent a lot of time goofing off and having fun. Their major activity of the year was selling pizzas at a football game for fundraising. Being the smallest class, the sophomores are pretty close. Throughout the year they have made new friends, and learned a lot of new things, and now they are just waiting for the next two busy years of high school to approach them.

Brent Zoucha is a master of disguise.

Brett Kuhn & Holly Engel, "I think the pudding is supposed to go in your mouth....."

Juniors

This is a good way to keep Eric Menke quiet.

Sadie Church showing her school spirit by reviewing the rules she should have followed.

Dustin Carlson trying to be unnoticed.

Nichole Labarge and Katie Holtorf enjoying science class.

The Junior class had a fun filled year getting ready for prom. They sold magazines to raise the majority of the money to host the big event for the Seniors. They had fun making the many decisions: colors, theme, decorations, meal, glasses, invitations, servers, and programs.

The Juniors liked having more freedom to choose their own classes. This is the year to get all the hard classes out of the way.

The Juniors liked being upper classmen and a little more superiority. They can't wait to be Seniors.

This year we had to say good-bye to 3 teachers who have put in a lot of years at our school. David Bridges retired after 28 1/2 years in education, 12 of which was here in Polk teaching Science & Voc. Ag. Carol Lind decided to bring her teaching career to a close after teaching English for 32 years. She started her teaching career here in 1971. Fred Hess resigned with 12 years of teaching Music here at Polk. He has been in education for 19 years and wants to pursue other avenues. All these teachers will be missed.

The football season of 2002 was exciting. They came into the year gaining seven freshmen after losing eleven seniors, but that didn't mean anything, they still had the confidence to win and succeed. They proved themselves worthy by making it to the playoffs. They worked hard, and worked as a team, ending the year with a 5-4 record.

"We had a very good year. The guys performed well and went beyond my expectations. The boys worked hard, and by working as a team they were rewarded by making it to the playoffs. But most of all we had great a season and Lot's of Fun!"

Sadie Church tossing the ball up for a free throw.

The Storm came into the season with two returning letterwinners, seniors Stacy Person, and Amy Price. They provided leadership for the team. "Those two had outstanding senior seasons for us," Coach Vrbka said.

As a team they averaged 39.2 points per game, while their opponents 44.5 points per game. Looking back at the season, Vrbka recalls the win against Hampton was the turning point for his team to get on the winning track.

With not much experience on the court, Vrbka was pleased with how his girls responded to the challenge of playing some quality teams in the CRC. "I was very pleased with how the season went" said Coach Vrbka.

The varsity's final record was 7-14 and the junior varsity team ended with a 2-6 final record.

The High Plains Community Boys Basketball team had a fairly good season this year; with a record of 7-13. "Our kids played hard every single game and improved throughout the year" stated Coach Hudson.

The team was strong in their rebounding ability. They averaged five more rebounds a game than their opponents, with 31 compared to 26 for opponents.

Coach Hudson said "Each player contributed to the effort and showed that they were a valuable part of the team."

Andrew Garey rolling his guy over for the pin.

The High Plains' wrestling team was small in numbers this year. With only eight men on the team, it made it hard to rack up the team's scores in meets. A single highlight may be difficult to pin point. It could be that half the team made it to the state tournament in Lincoln; Tyson Meyer, Andrew Garey, Ryan Tonniges, and Brian Beck. Or the unexpected team championship at the Turkey Creek Invitational. Or it could be the 5th place finish for Tyson Meyer at state. Regardless of what the chosen high light is, the Storm listened to the theory of Coach Manstedt. "Set your goal to do your individual best".

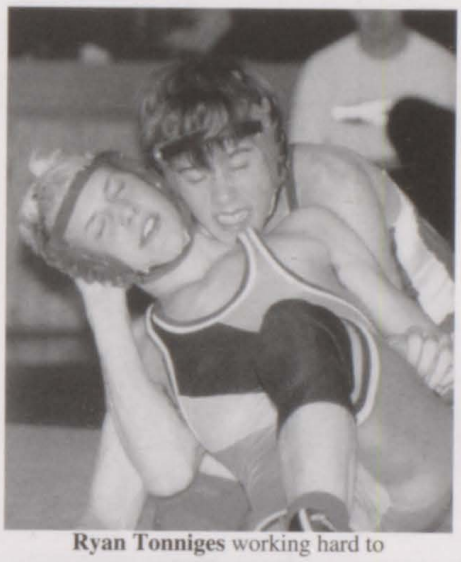

The team had a total of 262 takedowns, 109 reversals, 128 escapes, and 118 takedowns.

Three new school records were set by this year's boys track team. Levi Lindburg set records in the 110 and 300 hurdles and the 1600 relay record was broke by Eric Swanson, Brett Kuhn, Drew Rodine, and Brady Hanquist with a time of 3:46. Five events were represented by High Plains in the state meet. Drew Rodine in the Triple Jump, Levi Lindburg in the Long Jump, 110 and 300 Hurdles, and the 400 Meter Relay. The team performed well at every meet they participated in.

Hey guys, What are you doing?

The Girl's High Plains Track team kicked the season off at Central City on March 30, 2003. They were strongest in the throwing events and the hurdles. Samantha Dubas, Stephanie Gray, and Donna Wilson made a High Plains presence known in the hurdle events by placing 1,2,3. The girls' relay teams were also a strong hold. Also putting some points on the board were Amy Price, Corinna Vrbka, Christina Rhodes and Kristin Opfer in the throwing events.

There were many new school records set this year. Krystal Ditloff in the 100 running a time of 12.9 and in the 200 with a time of 27.5. The 3200 relay team of Lauren Redman, Erin Hammond, Lindsay Redman, and Holly Engel ran a time of 11:27. Donna Wilson ran a 49.4 in the 300 hurdles. Lauren Redman ran 2:44 in the 800. She also ran a 13:03.9 in the 3200. The 400 relay ran a time of 53.4 with the team of Samantha Dubas, Ashley Strobel, Donna Wilson and Krystal Ditloff.

The 10 members of the High Plains Golf team work hard during their season. They must fight the elements, rain, wind, and temperature. Most of their meets had good weather, but one was canceled because of rain.

Coach Killion was pleased with the season. He is always looking for progress, and saw some this year. "They were more successful in their meets and finished the highest yet at districts in the teams' three year history."

Only one senior will be lost to graduation, so many will be back for another year of competition.

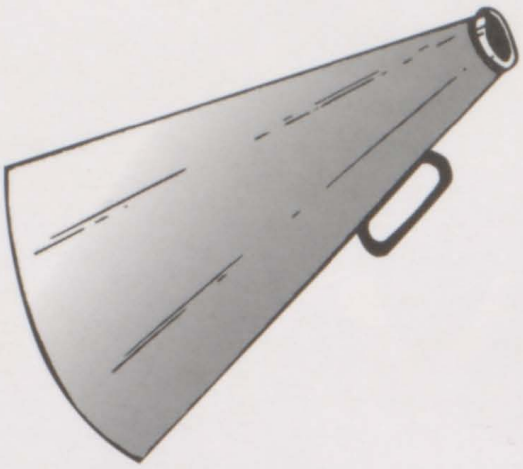

Vinny Bittinger ties off on hole 4.

student council

The student council had a busy year. They attended District meetings in Genoa and Fremont and the State meeting in Omaha. They held a Penny Drive, and collected $375 for the Make-A-Wish Foundation. The big event of the year was Leadership Fun Week. During the week students participated in different games each day at lunch. Monday was a limbo contest; Tuesday was a bat/scooter relay where the students spun around on a baseball bat and then raced on a scooter; Wednesday was an egg-toss contest; Thursday students participated in a pie-eating contest; and Friday was a Karaoke contest. A group of students from each class sang and danced to a song. The student council also made a donation to Post Prom.

SPEECH

The speech team was made up of 17 people, with several newcomers who decided they would like to give speech a try. The team was once again coached by Jean Blase, who was busy throughout the speech season helping everyone improve their performances.

The team competed in four meets this year; Ham-Mer at Central City, Osceola, CRC, and Districts.

Laura Blase received 4th Place for her Entertainment at CRC and Osceola.

The OID group got 2nd place at CRC and 3rd place at the Ham-Mer and district meets.

At districts Beth Lindgren received 4th Place for her Serious Prose.

Katie Holtorf and Christina Rhodes got 7th Place for their Duet at districts. Katie and Casey Sneed did duet at the other meets.

Christina Rhodes placed 2nd in Poetry at Ham-Mer and received 1st place in Poetry at Osceola.

Other members and their entries are as follows:
Whitney Flinn - Extemporaneous and Humorous Prose.
Chris Fowler - Informative.
Ivy Hejtmanek - Humorous Prose.

Choir

The choir had 12 members, seven of who were in the class and five that sang during their study hall. The girls (and one guy) worked hard on many different songs for their concerts, and for district competition. The girls also worked on a dance for the song "The Loco-Motion." The girls made the dance up and practiced together before performing it at the spring dessert concert. They also sang The National Anthem at many of the games. At Districts they received a Superior.

FFA is made up of the agriculture science class members and others in the school interested in agriculture. They always have a busy year with the judging contests they attend. Of course, they started their year off with the annual trip to Husker Harvest Days in Grand Island and Ag Career Days in York. They held a potluck supper in November and then it's on to selling fruit to fund their activities. The Cattlemen's Classic is also a fun activity they enjoy attending.

They attended the Fullerton Livestock Evaluation contest, the District 6 Education contest, District 6 Livestock Evaluation contest and the State contest. At Fullerton they had six place in the top 10 in the senior division, with Eric Menke placing the highest at 2nd. Two placed in the junior division with a 5th and 7th place. The senior team division resulted with 5th place for the team of Krystal Ditloff, Eric Menke, Tiffany Crouch, and Amanda Kohl, 3rd place for the team of Jace Hudson, Jesse Hammond, and Kyle Yrkoski, and a 1st place finish for the team of Taylor Comer, Austin Person, Aly Wruble, and Dustin Meyer. At both the District contests they had good results. Results from the State contest resulted in awards for Dan Person and Neil Andreasen in Agronomics and Taylor Comer and Jesse Hammond in Meat ID.

Snowy Range in Wyoming was chosen for the trip that is planned by the group. The individuals chosen to make the trip had an enjoyable time.

Dan Person received the FFA scholarship and the group bid farewell to their sponsor, Mr. David Bridges, due to his retirement from education.

Yearbook Staff

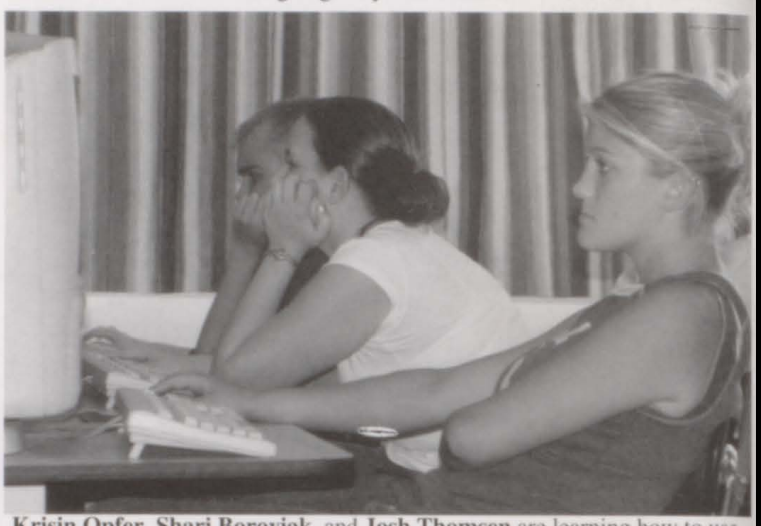

To start the year there were 5 students in the Desktop Publishing class. They first chore for the yearbook is to plan the layout and sell ads.

At the end of first semester Josh left us. He was greatly missed by the girls, but more work got done after he left. The staff worked hard to complete the 107 pages in this year's book.

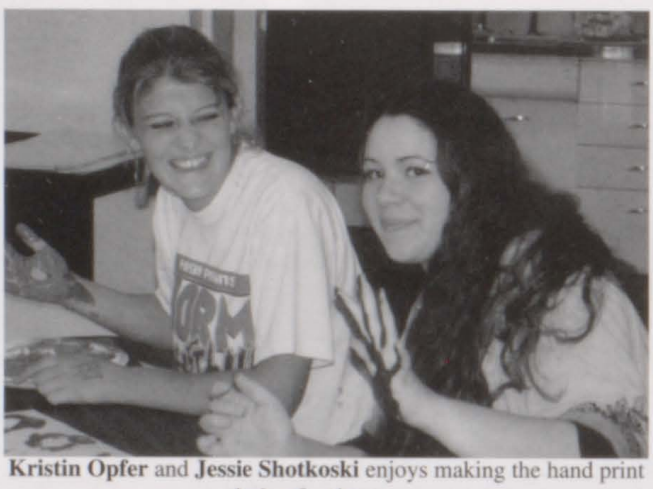

Besides working on the yearbook they also put together the Monthly Forecast, the school's newsletter. Ten issues a year are sent out to parents and patrons of the district to keep them informed of the school's happenings. Advisor, Mrs. Gilson, was a big help throughout the year.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society inducted nine new members making their total enrollment twenty-two. To become a member of this organization, a student must have high achievement and goals. They are measured on Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character. To apply for membership, the student must fill out an application and have a grade point average above a ninety percent after the first semester of their sophomore year. Then they are scored by their teachers on classroom achievement, leadership, and character. All students attended the ceremony where new the members of the NHS were inducted, received their certificates of membership and recited the NHS pledge.

Haley Stromberg and Christina Rhodes are all decked out in their safari gear.

The theme, Hot In Here, played true for the sports teams during the week. The volleyball team played 3 matches during the week. They beat Shickley but fell to Hampton and Meridian. The softball team played at districts. They played 4 games beating Cross County and David City but losing to Centennial and Milford. On Friday, the football team won their game against Clarkson 20-0. The JV football team loss on Monday against Exeter/ Milligan, but the MS football team beat Elba on Thursday and the JV volleyball team brought home the 3rd place trophy from the High Plains 9/10 Tourney on Saturday. The teams were certainly hot during the week.

Shari Boroviak, Laura Blase, and Beth Lindgren are all dressed up for "Hot Atmosphere Day."

Hey seniors, shake your booty!!

Santa Claus, aka Levi Lindburg, is coming to town.

Megan Stewart, Ashley Rathjen, and Laura Blase look like they just returned from Hawaii.

Amy Price and Stephanie Gray are gettin' jiggy with it.

"Mark Rust, what happened to your face?"

Beth Lindgren and her date arrived at the prom in syle.

Amber Swanson and Haley Stromberg puts actions to this song.

The High Plains prom was held on April 12, 2003 in the elementary gym. The Junior class hosted and honored the Seniors. They spent Friday afternoon and night decorating and getting ready for the big event.

The theme was "I'd Do Anything For You". Stephanie Gray welcomed the juniors, seniors, faculty, and their guests to the banquet. Ivy Hejtmanek read the poem, 'Memories of Tonight'. Senior class president, Brady Hanquist, thanked the juniors and their parents for all the hard work and effort that was put forth for the amazing night. After the dinner, pictures were taken and the dance was held. The Post-prom party was held at the Fitness Center in Central City with bowling. Prizes were given away at the end of the night. Another memorable prom night to put in the scrapbook. Thanks Juniors!

The Memories of Tonight

The music is soft
The lights are low
Share this last dance
With friends we know
The merry voices
The spirits light
Overshadow the sorrow
With fun tonight
May we stay with you
Through your quest
And hope the road's last turn
Will be the best
And when the night has ended
Only a memory will last
Of this perfect evening
Which passes by too fast
~The Juniors

Honor's Night

Honor's Night is a night to honor the students of High Plains Community High School. They have worked hard all year and now is the time to recognize them for their efforts. Coaches and sponsors of each activity comment on their seasons as well as teachers and administrator give awards for different achievements throughout the year.

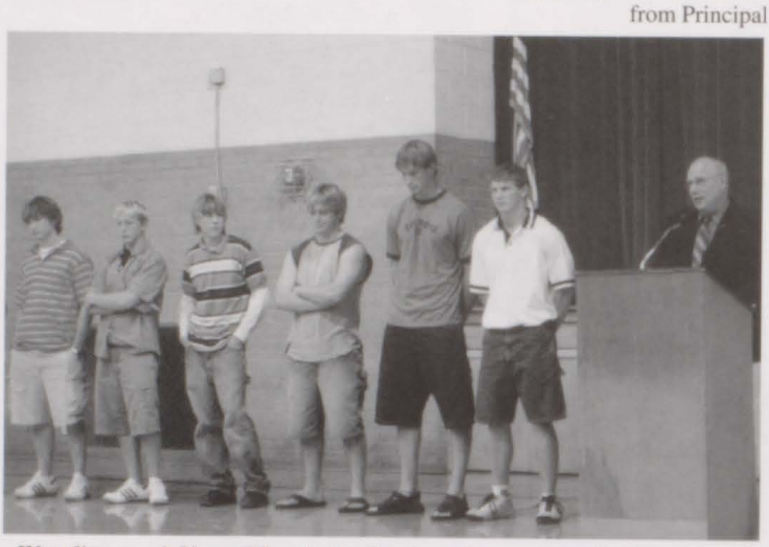

We have many people at our school who helps to make it the best that is can be. Thanks!

Brady Hanquist receives the All-Around Male Student Award from Principal Karyee LeSuer.

Principal Dale Buller gives David Bridges an award from the softball team and Sal Ciulla thanking him for the years of coaching. Track coach Steve Meyer also thanked Dave for his year helping with the track program. Dave retired this year with 29 years in education.

Wrestling coach Norm Manstedt talks about the season while the wrestlers would just as soon stayed seated.

Amanda Kohl is glad she is recognized for her efforts.

Abby Necker (left) and Corinna Vrbka (right) receive their award for perfect attendance from Mr. Buller. Other students that had perfect attendance this year were: Kyle Yrkoski, Brent Scherer, and Ivy Hejtmanek. Those students recognized for missing under 1/2 day were: Brandon Bankson, Joshua Gustafson, and Amber Swanson.

Amy Price receives the All-Around Female Student Award from Principal Karyee LeSuer.

Students and parents (above and below) were greeted with a hamburger and chips supper upon arriving at the evenings program. The cooks (right) were hard at work getting the burgers done on time. The meal added a little extra to the evening than just sitting there listening to the teachers talk.

Cole Swedenburg is receiving the male MVP for band from Mr. Hess.

Valerie Rahrs was a co-winner of the female MVP for band.

Samantha Dubas and Donna Wilson can't believe the coach told that story.

Pat Vest gave awards for Student Council, Quiz Bowl, and Brian Storm.

Don Walford talked about the Girls Track team.

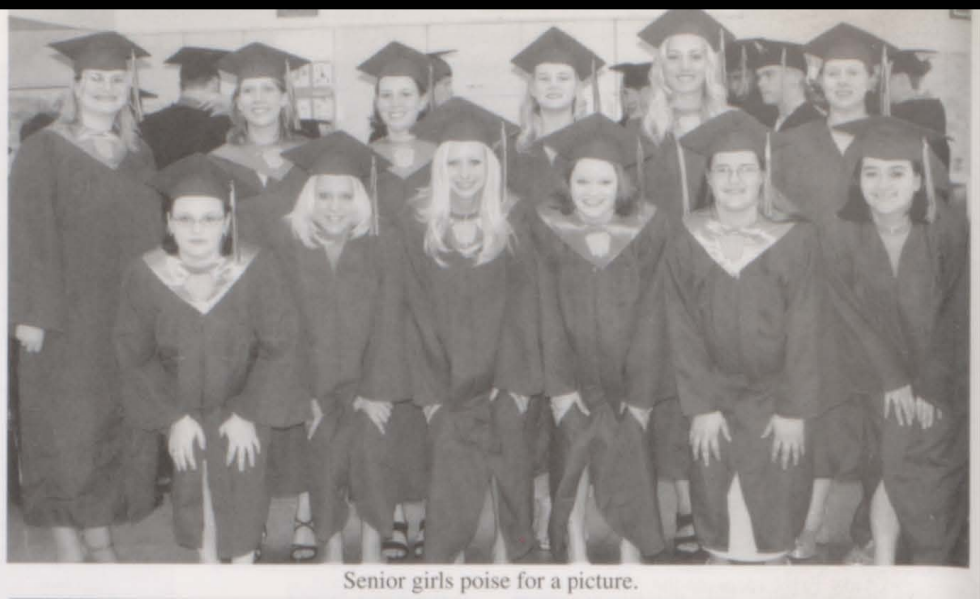

Amy Price was a co-winner of the female MVP for band.

Brady Hanquist and Amy Price received the Army Reserve Scholar Athlete Award.

Graduation took place Saturday, May 10, 2003. There was a total of twenty-nine graduating seniors. This was the third graduating class from High Plains Community High School and the first to have only one valedictorian and salutatorian.

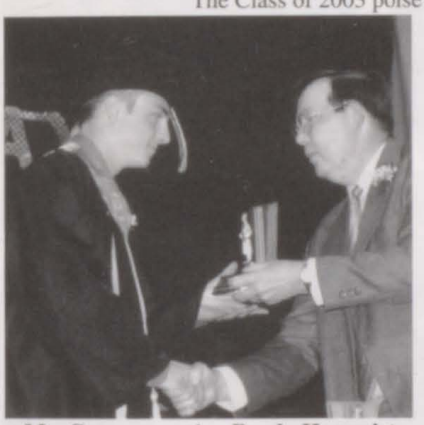

The class motto was 'Learn from Yesterday, Live for Today, Dream for Tomorrow'. Their flower was a Vendula Rose. Class colors were royal blue, black and silver and their song was "Long As I Can See The Light" by Creedence Clearwater Revival. Jean Blase sponsored the senior class and did a lot of extras for this special day.

The Class of 2003 poise for one final group picture.

SHARI

From the youngest in the family to the last one to graduate, You have truly overcome a lot of remarkable challenges. No wonder why we could catch you sleeping just about anywhere, it had to get tiring.

Well wake-up and look at you now. A bright, independent, charming young lady. You're smart, know what you want, and where you stand with a sense of humor and a smile we will always treasure.

You're moving on to another phase of your life now, don't lose your faith. God is always with you. No challenge is ever really to big. Hold onto your accomplishments and remember them and use them to grow and flourish even more. We are so proud of you.

Congratulations & Best Wishes
With Love, a hug,
and lot of Prayers

The little boy, that always had a smile upon your face.
Which we enjoyed every minute of the day.
You, the middle child, that had to live with siblings at both sides of the rope.
but it has made you what you are today,
A strong willed man.

We believe you have the strength and will to succeed in any challenges that the world will hand out to you.
We believe in you and will always love you
(especially "MOM").
May God bless you in everything you do!

Walsworth Publishing Company

Colophon

This 2003 High Plains Community Storm Yearbook was produced by the Desktop Publishing Class. Walsworth Publishing Company in Marceline, Missouri printed the book. Greg Adams, from Lincoln, was the sales representative. It was produced on the computer using PageMaker and the pages were disk submitted to the factory for printing. A variety of layout styles were used throughout the book. The type set for the body was Times. Body copy was 12-point, captions were 8-point and headlines were a variety of sizes and type sets. The paper stock used for the book was 80-pound enamel.

Pictures used were taken by the yearbook staff, interested students, and faculty members. Processing was done through various stores. The underclassmen school photos were taken by Life-touch. Senior portraits were taken by a variety of photography studios in the area.

There were 150 books printed, each containing 107 pages. Prices for the yearbook were $25, without a name printed on the cover, $27 with a name printed on the cover, and $30 if purchased after August 1st. Yearbook staff members were: Ashley Rathjen, Josh Thomsen, Shari Boroviak, Kristin Opfer, Jessica Shotoski, and Advisor Linda Gilson.

We would like to thank all the students, faculty, administrators, parents and businesses for their cooperation for allowing photos to be taken of them throughout the year and for purchasing this yearbook and/or ads. Your support of the school is greatly appreciated.
